MANDARIN ORIENTAL, COSTA NAVARINO, MESSENIA

The private Costa Navarino reserve in the Peloponnese's Messenia is already known for its dunes, secret bays, world-class golf courses and family-friendly resorts – but Mandarin Oriental's Greek debut takes things up a notch. With sweeping views of the coast, the resort is cast organically into the hillside, with flora-topped pool villas and gardens alive with pirouetting butterflies and bushels of oleander and rosemary. The 51 suites and 48 pool villas are spacious, and even entry-level rooms can interconnect for families. The creations of local artisans are everywhere, from the bespoke latticework headboards to the organic thyme-flavoured chocolate. Breakfast tapas, or paramana, are served on the lavender-scented terrace of Oliviera restaurant, including homemade yogurt topped with pistachio and honeycomb, and milk cake. Aside from Eastern Mediterranean restaurant Tahir (whose silken baba ghanoush is a must), the pizza omakase counter at Pizza Sapienza impresses with its 48-hour-proved, perfectly singed slices topped with freshly picked courgette flowers and local horta bitter greens with nduja. The citrus-hued spa has a panoramic 25-metre pool and indoor-outdoor gym stocked with pepper and ginger kombucha shots. This is a resort for all generations, with access to Costa Navarino's four golf courses, tennis academy and plentiful water sports; and new free kids' club, laden with wooden toys. And thanks to its excellent GM, Raul Levis, there's warmth in its soul. JEMIMA SISSONS
